Policy Document for Code of Ethics

The institute promotes the universal values and ethics. Various activities are conducted to instill these values. The aim of the policy document is to set out a framework for codes of practice for ethical conduct in the institution.

The institute has published a Human Values, Professional Ethics and Code of Conduct (handbook) for various stakeholders. All the stakeholders are expected to adopt the human values, professional ethics and abide by the Code of Conduct. A copy of handbook is provided to all the stakeholders of Sat Jinda Kalyana College, Kalanaur (Rohtak), which gives a broad view of the institutional policies and guidelines to be complied with, for the smooth and meaningful conduct of academic and administrative responsibilities. All the concerned stakeholders including governing body, staff and students, need to accept and adhere to the highest ethical standards in the teaching/learning process. A system of corrective measures in place to help the administration to identify any kind of breach the of code of conduct and immediately take the desired corrective steps

A monitoring committee has also been constituted to follow up and make sure that human values are upheld, Professional Ethics and Code of Conduct is adhered to.
