SAT JINDA KALYANA COLLEGE, KALANAUR (ROHTAK)

POLICY DOCUMENT FOR DIVYANGJAN

As per the guidelines given by the UGC dated on 14 January, 2019, the college has made special arrangements in the college for the mobility and independent functioning of the Divyangjan. The college has addressed the accessibility related issues and basic infrastructure is made available to the differently abled persons. Future construction projects in the campus will be made friendly for the differently abled. And assistive devices will be procured as per the needs.

Following facilities are available in the college campus:

- Infrastructural facilities in the college are differently abled friendly. Dedicated Parking lot, special accessible washrooms and ramps are available to suit the special needs of differently abled persons.
- Signages including display boards and signposts have been installed for the support of the differently abled persons.
- The college will provide fee concession, scribes during examination, if required.
- NVDA software is installed in computers kept in library as well as the computer lab for assistance to the blind and visually challenged so as to enable them to access the internet and read e-books.
