

Sat Jinda Kalyana P.G. College, Kalanaur (Rohtak)

NCC (National Cadet Corps)

The NCC unit of college is affiliated to 11, Haryana Battalion, Bhiwani (Army (Infantry)). It's a mixed unit of boys and girls in which a total strength of 54 cadets is sanctioned to the college. Ever since the establishment of the college, the NCC unit has been working with a view to inculcate 'Unity and Discipline' along with arousing virtues like brotherhood, character building, patriotism, courage, fearlessness, respect to all religions, etc.

In the beginning of the academic year, students are encouraged and then selected for NCC strictly on the basis of the criteria prescribed by the battalion. Parades take place as per the schedule provided by the battalion.

The college NCC unit is equipped with the necessary facilities. There is an NCC office with ample luggage space for clothing items, Dummy Rifles etc. There is a large parade ground available for the conduct of parades.

The NCC cadets of the college participate in different battalion and national level camps like CATC, ATC, NIC, Pre- RDC, All India Trekking Camps etc. are held at different places in the country. NCC unit celebrates Republic Day, Independence Day, International Yoga Day, National unity Day, National Youth Day, Constitution Day. At the ending of the academic year, the college NCC Unit conducts written theoretical and practical practice examination for 'B' and 'C' certificates as and when directed by battalion. The best cadets are honoured by the college. The cadets are promoted to the ranks like L/CPL, CPL, SGT, Q.M.SGT, U.O. and entrusted with responsibilities to instill in them qualities of leadership.

At present Dr. (Lt.) Vikas Kumar is rendering his services as Coy/PL Commander on the post of ANO.
